IRG Physical & Hand Therapy Collects Over 28 Units of Blood at Clinic Blood Drive
IRG Physical & Hand Therapy – Mount Vernon Raises Donations to Save 84 Lives in Clinic's Fall Blood Drive

MOUNT VERNON, Wash., November 19, 2021: In October of 2021, IRG Physical & Hand Therapy hosted a blood drive at their Mount Vernon physical therapy location. Members of the public visited the clinic to make contributions through the American Red Cross, collecting 28 units of blood and saving up to 84 lives.

IRG Physical Therapy – Mount Vernon also hosted a summer blood drive during the month of July, which collected 30 units of blood. Combined with their most recent blood drive, the clinic has collected 58 total units of blood and has saved over 170 lives through the help of the community.

Of the blood drive's success, IRG Physical Therapy – Mount Vernon's front office coordinator, Carmen Hubbard, said, "We were so excited and honored to host another successful blood drive at our clinic. There is something truly wonderful that happens when our community comes together to help make a difference for others. We love that we can continue to be a host-site for the American Red Cross since there is such a shortage of blood donations right now, and we are looking forward to our next blood drive in January!"

IRG Physical Therapy – Mount Vernon is hosting a winter blood drive at their clinic on January 7, 2021. Donations collected through this drive will continue to benefit the American Red Cross.

IRG Physical Therapy – Mount Vernon is now accepting new patients at 525 E College Way, Mount Vernon, WA 98273. The clinic offers specialized services in pre- and post-surgical rehabilitation, sports injury rehabilitation, Astym® therapy, and more.
