IRG Physical & Hand Therapy Celebrates Opening of New Wallingford Clinic
IRG Physical Therapy - Wallingford Welcomes New Patients in Opening of 35th Company Clinic

SEATTLE, August 2, 2021: IRG Physical & Hand Therapy opened the doors of its newest clinic located in the Wallingford neighborhood of Seattle on Monday, August 2, 2021. This marks the company's 35th expansion in physical therapy, hand therapy and affiliate clinics, with four clinics now residing in the Seattle area.

Of the clinic's recent opening, IRG Physical Therapy – Wallingford clinic director Paige Vivian said, "I am so excited to be in such a beautiful space like the Wallingford Center, and I look forward to building relationships within this new-to-me neighborhood."

Additionally, IRG Physical & Hand Therapy CEO Shannon O'Kelley said, "Our strength has always been our relationships with the community that our clinics are in. At IRG, our focus is to be your family's physical therapist, your community's physical therapist and your neighborhood physical therapy group. We are looking forward to providing great physical therapy services, along with prevention, wellness and education opportunities for the entire family and community."

IRG Physical Therapy – Wallingford is now accepting new patients. The clinic offers specialized services in spine rehabilitation, pre- and post-surgical rehabilitation, sports injury rehabilitation, pelvic floor rehabilitation and more. Interested patients can contact 206-752-6837 to book an appointment, schedule a free injury screen or request further information.

About IRG Physical and Hand Therapy:
