

Andrea Huotari

PT, DPT | IRG Physical Therapy - Murphy's Corner

Andrea Huotari's passion for physical therapy started at an early age, not through personal injury, but with seeing the potential to help those around her with both prevention and the ability to return to function after injury. Andrea is a Certified Orthopedic Manual Therapist. She applies her clinical expertise and passion for living an active, healthy lifestyle to her patient care.

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

- Certified Orthopedic Manual Therapist (COMT)
- Graston Certified

Education and Professional Memberships

- Bachelor of Arts, Biology, Emphasis in Health and Medical Sciences, Minnesota State University Moorhead
- Doctorate of Physical Therapy, University of North Dakota, Grand Forks
- American Physical Therapy Association: Orthopedic and Sports sections