

Brooke Nearpass

PT, DPT | Seattle – North Seattle

"I have a passion for working together with each patient to better understand their injury, achieve their personalized goals, and improve their quality of life"

Brooke was born and raised in Billings, MT. She grew up playing basketball, volleyball, soccer, as well as singing in choir. She loves to do anything that gets her in the great outdoors with her fiancé, Zach, and their Australian Shepherd, Bailey, cooking home cooked meals together, and spending time with friends and family. She has enjoyed the opportunity to explore the PNW and all it has to offer. She strongly believes in the resilience of the human body and its ability to recover from injury.
