

Carrie Bailey Suamataia

MOTR/L | IRG Pacific Hand Therapy – Everett

"My primary goal is to help my patients meet their personal goals after a physical injury."

Carrie Bailey Suamataia is a native of western Washington. She earned her Master of Occupational Therapy degree in 2013 at Midwestern University in Glendale, Arizona. She has professional experience in Work Conditioning and Work Hardening as well as Hand Therapy.

Education

- Master of Occupational Therapy, Midwestern University, Glendale Arizona
- Bachelor of Arts in History and Social Studies, Western Washington University, Bellingham, Washington

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

- Hand Therapy
- Custom Sprinting
- Desensitization/Sensory Reduction
- Post-Operative Care
- Scar Management
- Orthotic Fabrication