

Catey Phipps

LAT, ATC | IRG Sports Performance and Athletic Training Mobile Clinic

"There is nothing better than watching an athlete get back out on the field, or returning to the workforce following an injury. I love being able to help them with the rehabilitation process and returning to their best self!"

Catey was born and raised in Seattle, Washington. She loves to experience everything the Pacific Northwest has to offer. She enjoys hiking with her husband and son, playing tourist in Downtown Seattle, and hopping on a ferry to explore the islands and peninsula. She loves to travel and explore new places with her family.
