

Max Reinke

PT, DPT | Everett - Silver Lake

"My favorite part of being a PT is connecting with patients and discovering what they are passionate about. There is tremendous satisfaction from helping people return to doing what they love."

Max is originally from Chicago, and is an avid supporter of the Bears, Bulls, and White Sox. A participant in multiple sports growing up, he was a member of the Georgetown University crew team in college, and he enjoys exercising regularly to stay in shape. Having recently moved to the area, he is eager to explore the outdoors and all the PNW has to offer.

Education

- Doctorate in Physical Therapy from Northwestern University
- Masters in Kinesiology from The University of Michigan
