

Rebekah Pogwizd

MSOT, OTR/L, CHT | IRG Physical & Hand Therapy - Gateway

"Experiencing my own significant injury allows me to understand being in the patient's shoes. I look forward to bringing empathy and compassion to your patient care to help you to achieve your goals. "

Rebekah grew up in a small town in Northern Wisconsin. Rebekah, her husband, and two dogs moved to Seattle area to find new adventures. They have been lucky enough to travel to Japan, China, Indonesia, South America, Mexico, Israel, U.K., Sweden, Finland and some U.S. states. She has always been happiest outdoors; competing in sports such as wakeboarding, snowboarding, golf and triathlons.

Education

- Masters of Science in Occupational Therapy from Mount Mary University (Summa Cum Laude)
- Bachelor's in Exercise Science and Emergency Medicine from Northern Michigan University

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

- Hand Therapy