

Samantha Bennett

DPT | Everett - Murphy's Corner

Samantha Bennett became interested in physical therapy at the age of 16 after recovering from a knee surgery. Her experience as a patient has helped Samantha relate to her patients on a personal level. When she's not helping patients get back to the activities they enjoy, you can find Samantha hiking, swimming or cheering on Seattle's sports teams.

Education

- Bachelor of Science, Kinesiology, Washington State University
- Doctorate of Physical Therapy, University of Washington

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

- Post Operative Care
- Aquatic Therapy
- Balance and Falls Prevention
- Sports Performance