

Susan Schroeter

LMT | IRG Physical & Hand Therapy - Gateway

"I endeavor to help each client facilitate and enrich their own wellness through massage therapy. "

Susan was raised in a small town in northwestern Pennsylvania about 2 hours from Pittsburgh. Her interests in theater, art and music have carried through to her adult life where she loves to participate in community theater, oil painting, gardening and running her own part time photography business. Susan moved to Washington state in 1997 when her husband came to work for a well know aircraft company. They now have 3 grown daughters and a grandson.
