

Teri Low-McGavin

PT Everett - Murphy's Corner

"I feel education is the most important service I can provide to my patients."

Teri knows that education is the key to helping her patients achieve lasting benefits. She teaches her patients how to manage their current problem and how to prevent recurrence. When not treating patients, Teri enjoys skiing and cheering on the UW football team.

Education and Professional Memberships

- Bachelor of Science, Physical Therapy, University of Puget Sound
- The McKenzie Institute, Completed Level C
- Advanced Courses in Assessment and Treatment of Balance and Mobility Disorders in Geriatric Populations Seminar

SPECIALIZED TRAINING

- The McKenzie Method
- Vestibular Rehabilitation
- Geriatric Rehabilitation
- Balance and Falls Prevention